Dear Lawrence,

You are an amazing person because you teach me so many great things I need in life and teach me what I can do.

Your personality is pretty chill because every time I share terrible things with you, you are calm like nothing happened. You also teach me how to be more sociable and friendly because when I met you, I was quiet.

You are such a great person. Thank you for helping me to be sociable. You must stay healthy and strong so you can live a healthy life.

Love,

Nico
